Schools of course tend to focus on verbal and mathematical abilities, yet we all know that the human person has other abilities. Below are listed some other areas of ability. Please indicate on a scale of 1 to 5 (5 being the greatest involvement) your estimate of your child's ability in these areas.

Visual/spatial (imaginative, artistic: likes to draw, delights in beautiful things)

Body/kinesthetic (athletic, physical: likes physical games and sports)

Mechanical/practical (likes to fix things, has tools or uses them, builds things)

Musical/rhythmic (takes music lessons, sings, or plays an instrument)

Intra-personal (quiet, independent, aware, thinks on his/her own, has own ideas)

Inter-personal (“a people person”: social, likes or “needs” company, considerate of others)

Verbal/linguistic (reads books, likes to write, articulates ideas well)

Logical/mathematical (has no problem with math problems, likes logical puzzles)

Religious (knows his/her faith; prays, reads the Bible, loves the Church and sacraments, charitable)

Emotional (emotional maturity)

In the space provided or on a separate piece of paper, please describe your child, being sure to comment on his/her strengths and weaknesses as you see them. In addition, state what you hope for your child from a Trivium School education.

On a separate sheet of paper, without assistance, the applicant must submit a one-page hand written essay describing his or her hero.

In addition to this form, submit a photograph of the candidate and copies of recent academic records (e.g., recent report cards and copies of standardized tests).

Please print or type and return to the Admission Office together with a nonrefundable application fee ($25.00). Applications filed without this fee will not be processed.
