

HARVARD LEARNING POINT

SAT Prep Course

Summer 2021

July 8 to August 26

The SAT tests students on their ability to:

- Comprehend reading passages (inc. charts, tables, graphs)
- Improve the quality of writing in passages
- Write a cohesive, effective essay analyzing a reading selection and prompt
- Solve math problems (with and without a calculator)
  - Problems are founded on concepts/skills learned in Algebra 1, Algebra 2, and Geometry, including trigonometric functions

How important is it to achieve a high SAT score?

It is extremely important. A high SAT score greatly improves the prospect of acceptance at better colleges and universities, as well as creates opportunities to win college scholarships.

Ascertain what score your child needs for his or her target school. Go to www.collegeboard.com and do a search on each school. Click on “Applying” to see SAT and ACT score ranges.

Why should my child take THIS course?

Students will complete four practice tests, during which we review math topics, writing and grammar fundamentals, reading strategies, and test-taking strategies and techniques.

Having completed this course, many diligent students earned SAT scores 150+ points above their PSAT. While no course can guarantee a specific level of achievement, the instruction and exercises in this program are comprehensive and methodical and were developed to help students reach their academic potentials.

The course is paced for students that achieved a 1050 or greater on the PSAT (or 23 on the PLAN). If students scored lower, they may find the in-class work particularly challenging and should be prepared to spend additional time working on the assignments.

Who’s the instructor?

Mr. Will Engler, M.Ed. (Massachusetts DOE license); High School Math/Science Teacher, Trivium School; Director, Harvard Learning Point; (978) 868-4410, wengler1@protonmail.com.

Where are the classes held?

Trivium School, 471 Langen Rd, Lancaster, MA 01523 (Near routes 2 and 190)

How do I register?

Contact me with the student’s name, address, school, grade, PSAT or PLAN score. Send tuition payment to: William Engler, c/o Trivium School, 471 Langen Rd, Lancaster, MA 01523.

Make checks payable to William Engler. Full payment must be received by July 7, 2021.
